Consignment of Hungarian Partridges
Received on Tuesday for Distribution.

A consignment of 25 pairs of Hungarian partridges were received from the state fish and game commission Tuesday afternoon by Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton, secretary of the Willimantic Gun club. The birds will be released in adjacent towns on land that is not posted. It is Mr. Fenton's idea to release a few pairs at a time and by that method succeed in propagation of the species which is new to this locality.

Unposted land in Chaplin, Scotland, Mansfield and Windham, as well as Hampton and possibly one or more other towns will receive a portion of the Hungarian partridges. A number of local sportsmen went to the union station Tuesday afternoon at a little before seven o'clock to get a peep at the feathered creatures and evinced considerable interest in their arrival.

In Hartford Hospital.
Miss Alice Lennell left Tuesday morning for Hartford, where she is to undergo treatment at St. Francis' hospital.

MIDWINTER SOCIETY.

Of Anne Wood Elderkin Chapter, D. A. R.—Delightful Entertainment.

Anne Wood Elderkin chapter, D. A. R., held its midwinter social at the Woman's club rooms Tuesday evening. The hall was beautifully decorated, the national colors predominating. Music for the evening was furnished by Helms' orchestra.

C. Herbert Caswell sang "The World of Dreams," and "The World of Love." Miss Edith Risjord accompanied him on the piano. The Misses Peabody of the choir sang "The World of Love," and "The World of Dreams." All received enthusiastic applause.

Refreshments were served during the evening. The reception was largely attended and was considered one of the most successful ever held under the auspices of the local chapter.

This committee was in charge of the arrangements. Mrs. H. R. C. O'Neil, chairman, Mrs. George F. Taylor, Mrs. T. R. Parker, Miss Mabel Johnson, Mrs. P. H. Elderkin, J. C. Bugbee, Mrs. A. D. Leavitt, Mrs. Annie Way, Mrs. May Pomeroy, Mrs. James H. Ross, Mrs. James MacFarlane and Mrs. Charles Larabee.

TRUSTEE CAPEN

Expected to Succeed Him on Board of State Agricultural College.

Attorney Charles A. Capen of Willimantic, a member of the board of trustees of the Connecticut agricultural college, is a candidate for reelection to the board at the annual meeting of the college in March.

Attorney Capen has been a member of the board almost eight years, and has served during the past four years has been secretary of the board. Mr. Capen's name was presented to the general assembly at the session of the board, and he has no opposition, there being no manifest at the present time.

Two other members whose terms expire at this session of the general assembly are George S. Palmer of New London, vice president of the board, and E. C. Patterson of Torrington.

The candidacy of Colonel Jarvis of Berlin has been mentioned as a possibility, and it is believed in some quarters that Colonel Jarvis will be the candidate against Mr. Palmer of New London. It is expected that B. A. Patterson will be re-elected, and has been a member of the board for a number of years and has always been an active and conscientious worker in the college in its various and constantly enlarging activities.

DR. T. MORTON HILLS.

Simple Services and Private Funeral Held on Tuesday Afternoon.

The funeral of Dr. Thomas Morton Hills was held Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the residence on North street, and was private, according to a long established custom in the family of the deceased. The services were attended only by the members of the family and intimate friends of the body, however, lay in state from 10 a. m. until 1 p. m., and many people from every walk in life called and viewed the remains as they lay in state, as though they were in the office where the doctor had talked with and advised so many in years past. Practically every member of the medical faculty of this city as well as a number of physicians and surgeons from out of town were noticeable in the throng.

There were beautiful floral tributes, among them a broken lyre from the Willimantic board of trade, a large wreath of flowers from the Willimantic City Medical society, wreath from Conductor Crowley of the New York road, wreath from Frederick Thrall of Keene, N. H., and many individual floral pieces and loose flowers from members of the family and friends.

Rev. Alfred Free of Florence, Mass., officiated at the services assisted by Rev. William B. Burdett, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city. Teaching eulogies were pronounced that fittingly commemorated Dr. Hills' long and faithful service for his fellowmen.

The bearers were Dr. Rinal Robinson of Danielson, Dr. T. R. Parker, R. C. Wright of this city, Dr. E. Guild of Windham, Luke Flynn and Thomas C. Chandler. Burial was in the cemetery at 2 o'clock. Dr. Hills' wife and daughter were in charge of the arrangements.

OBITUARY.

James D. Miller.
James D. Miller, 72, of Danielson, died at the Day-Kimball hospital in Putnam early Tuesday. Mr. Miller had been a patient at the hospital for about two weeks, receiving treatment for a serious ailment. He has not been in good health for some time and recently while returning from a visit with his son in New York state was stricken near the Buckingham Memorial hospital. He recovered sufficiently to return to Danielson, but gradually failed.

Mr. Miller has been a resident of Danielson for nearly half a century. He served in the Civil war as a member of Company K, Eleventh Connecticut Infantry. At one time he was a member of A. G. Warner post, G. A. R., of Putnam. He was engaged in various business enterprises during his residence in Danielson. He is survived by one son, John Miller, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Various Items.

HELD IN $500 BONDS.
John F. Taylor, colored, is awaiting trial at Brooklyn jail under bonds of $500, charged with burglarizing the house of Mildred Chollar at Elliott.

The body of James D. Miller of Danielson, who died at the Day-Kimball hospital Tuesday, was taken to Danielson.

CHAPLIN MAN HELD.
William M. Lee of Chaplin, charged with breaking and entering the Bradbury residence at Pomfret street, was found guilty on three counts in a justice's court at Pomfret Tuesday morning and is now awaiting trial at the Brooklyn jail. Lee's bonds total $1,800; $500 on each of two counts of breaking and entering and $800 for carrying concealed weapons. This last charge was brought against Lee after he had been searched at local police headquarters and a wicked looking knife found inside the folds of his trousers, fell down towards his foot.

It was overlooked in the preliminary search, which took place at the local police headquarters. It is no toy, but a real type that finds favor with the Black Hand variety of criminals. The knife is new, with a blade about seven inches long and the keen instrument could easily be driven through a man's heart. Class and Social Meetings.

The girls' gymnasium class and the ladies' class in physical culture met in the Congregational gymnasium Tuesday afternoon and evening.

A meeting of the Ladies' Social circle of the Second Congregational church is to be held at the home of Mrs. Edgar Clarke in Elm street this (Wednesday) afternoon.

A sewing meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will be held with Mrs. G. A. Vaughan of Church street this afternoon. It has been added to his already large stable of prize winners.

It is expected that the promoters of the Waterbury Trotting association, Inc., will invite Mr. Peck to train his string of horses at the local track this spring and summer.

STAFFORD SPRINGS.

Parochial Pupils to Enter High School on Certificate—Not Much Harvested.

The regular monthly meeting of the town school committee was held at the library Monday afternoon. It was voted to permit the pupils of St. Edmund's parochial school to enter the High school on certificate. This places the pupils of the parochial school on the same footing as the pupils in district number 1 and 2.

Michael Sullivan of Willimantic spent Tuesday in town.

The moving picture show at St. Edmund's hall has been well patronized this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Allaire and two children have gone to Canada to visit relatives.

FUNERAL.

Frank E. Thompson.
The funeral of Frank E. Thompson, 54, who died Thursday noon after an illness of five weeks with typhoid fever, was held at the Central Village church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. R. E. Butterfield of Hartford and Rev. H. Wilcox of Norwich officiated.

The bearers were Andrew J. Ladd, Sessions L. Adams, William Loring and Everett Dean, all members of Adelphi lodge, of which Mr. Thompson had been a member for many years. His death was the third in the lodge since its organization thirty-three years ago.

Mr. Thompson leaves his father, Nathaniel P. Thompson, and a sister, Mrs. John Stone, who lives in Norwich. Burial was at Evergreen.

Judge Edgar M. Warner of Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan of Danielson, Daniel Shippee of Wareham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson of Putnam, Mrs. Ernest Scott, Miss Hattie Stone and Miss Hannah Sly of Providence, Mrs. Eugene Edwards of Jewett City, James Parkes and Mrs. Alfred Hyde of Meosup were among those who attended the funeral.

FOR GOLDEN WEDDING

Waterbury First Church Sends Formal Letter to Rev. Dr. Anderson.

At the annual meeting of the First Congregational church of Waterbury a tribute of note was paid to the Rev. Joseph A. Anderson, D.D., pastor emeritus of that church, by the church members as a body voting to send an engrossed letter of appreciation for his many years of faithful service in behalf of the parish and wishing him many happy returns of the day. This letter was sent off by mail last evening to Dr. and Mrs. Anderson, who are at Brooklyn, N. Y., and was intended to reach them in time for their golden wedding anniversary, Monday, January 25.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Myra Douglas of New London, grand child of honor of the New England Jurisdiction Degree of Honor, and Mrs. John Strick, grand secretary of the degree, were in town Tuesday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Green on the Heights.

Mrs. E. H. Cortiss is in Providence today (Wednesday) attending the funeral services of a lifelong friend, Mrs. William Bodie.

Candidates of Both Parties.
In the election of Albertus C. Burdick, Monday, to the office of borough clerk and treasurer, the right man was put in the right place, his name appearing on both sides of the republican ticket. In the recent town election the same precedent was established by Daniel M. Edwards appearing on both tickets for town clerk and treasurer, which office he has held for some years.

Educational Matters Discussed.
At a special meeting of the school board held at the town hall Monday afternoon the Hon. John W. Payne was present. Mr. Payne, who is Griswold's representative in the legislature, is a member of the educational committee of the house. The discussion was relative to certain educational matters that have been before this session. It is reported that the important question is regarding the fixed age limit by which regulates the number of months a child under 16 must attend school. At present no corporation may hire children under 14 years, and between the ages of 14 and 16 a certificate must be produced to prove that the child has complied with the law.

OBITUARY.

Benjamin Sweet.
James O. Sweet has been notified of the death of his brother, Benjamin Sweet, which occurred on Sunday morning at Hills Grove, R. I. Mr. Sweet lived here many years ago and leaves a number of friends to mourn his death. James O. Sweet, Mrs. E. A. Faust and Mrs. A. H. Vaughn will attend the funeral in Hills Grove, as will also J. A. Owen, an intimate friend, who will be one of the bearers.

Pleasing Musical Service.
The musical service, entitled "The Town Hall," which was given at the Congregational church last Sunday morning, met with great favor. It is an English story of a lad whose life is eventually saved from death by a bullet in the Bible which his mother gave him and which he had neglected. It was read by Mrs. E. A. Faust in clear, telling manner, which held the closest attention of the audience. The music was of the English order, with choros, solos and duets, and was given at intervals during the reading, by the choir. This service has been given in this church but once before. It may be repeated here.

BALTIC.

Margaret Connell, the second youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connell, who had been ill the past ten days with a severe case of grip, died at her home in Elm street Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock. She was a lovely child and will be greatly missed by her parents and playmates. She is survived by her parents and three sisters and four brothers.

Gladys Smith is seriously ill at her home on Railroad street.
